

A Beginner's Guide to

Skiing

By Honor Slope

Introduction

Please, thoroughly read through this guide and you will develop an understanding of skiing you wouldn't have deemed possible. Since most novice explorers enter the world of skiing without having experience or understanding, you can now certainly be rest assured, with this book, you will be delightfully hitting those challenging slopes without a care in the world.

In fact, this book will teach you about the language skiers use and make sure you learn how to speak like the locals.

Unlike other guides, this book educates like no other. With hints, tips and all of the little bits of information you need when on the slopes. Filled with interesting and curious facts you didn't know you needed to know, this book will help you to become the skier you always dreamed you would be and more!

Finally, thank you for purchasing this book. Enjoy!

Chapter One

Ski Etiquette

It's important to understand what is the correct order when pushing off. Can you work out who pushed off fourth?

Bob pushed off at some point after Ena.
Hans did not push off directly before or after Heidi, Ena, Rhoda or Ava.
Rhoda pushed off at some point before Ena.
Ava pushed off at some point between Heidi and Bob.
Ena pushed off at some point before Heidi.

Chapter Two

Great Exercise

- Lucy visited from France.
- Whoever came from Washington skied either 20 or 40km.
- Bianca skied the furthest and is British.
- Richard skied the shortest distance.

Where is Richard from?

	Adam	Richard	Lucy	Bianca	10km	20km	30km	40km
London
Paris
Washington
10km
20km
30km
40km

Chapter Three

Après-Ski

There are many wonderful activities to be enjoyed after a hard day on the slopes.

When it hits 5 o'clock you may be the 1 who decides it is time to head out and enjoy a pre dinner cocktail.

Most of the local restaurants are busy by 8 o'clock with people enjoying all the wonderful cuisine on offer.

Skiing is a great family event but, for those over 22, the night life is a chance to let your hair down and meet other like minded ski enthusiasts.
